MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

Subject: Participation in the United States Delegation to the Ad Hoc Intelligence Working Group of the Standing Group, North Atlantic Military Committee

1. The United States Delegation to the Ad Hoc Intelligence Working Group convened by the Standing Group, North Atlantic Military Committee, during the period 7 to 23 March 1960, was materially assisted by the following Central Intelligence Agency representatives:

NAME

COMMITTEE

Steering
Economic--U. S.
Spokesman
Political

2. Each of these individuals contributed substantially through his professional knowledge, objectivity and negotiating skill in securing general acceptance of the United States position and in achieving an improved product in the 1960 edition of the Standing Group Intelligence Estimate.

3. [] served as Advisor to the United States Representative to the Ad Hoc Intelligence Working Group. His counsel in the sessions of the Steering Committee was particularly helpful.

4. [] served as United States spokesman in the Economic Subcommittee. He too deserves particular credit for the able manner in which he kept the United States Representative fully and currently informed on potential problems and on progress of negotiations.

5. The assistance of the Central Intelligence Agency and of the individuals concerned in this important conference in support of NATO is sincerely appreciated.
